The 1946

PUBLISHED ANNUALLY BY THE JUNIOR CLASS OF

MARYVILLE COLLEGE

MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

Presents

SIGNS OF MARYVILLE COLLEGE

sunlight through a chapel window

... that special date for the Artist Series ... the crowd in Pearsons lobby ... cheering our team to victory ... the thrill of newly-awakened perception ...

these things are the very essence of Maryville ... these things we will remember ...

FRIENDSHIPS GALORE

spontaneous campus greetings . . . the Student Mixer . . . dorm cat chats . . . friendships that are more than friendships . . . singing around the piano . . . shopping trips to Knoxville . . . community wardrobe for a big weekend . . . friendliness is an institution here at Maryville . . .

FOOD AND FUN

boxes from home
 . . . open fire . . .
 burnt "weenies" . . .
 strong coffee . . .
 throwing for extras
 . . . after-supper
 volley-ball . . .

Nicely's specials
 . . . Chatterbox
 time . . . moonlight hikes . . .

TESTS AND TOIL

those eternal beginning-of-the-semester lines . . . the unsolvable chemistry problem . . . weekly wash . . . taking a light-cut until 11:15 . . . studying the things that weren't asked . . . cleaning up after a feast . . . the long-suffering waitress . . . college has meant these things year after year—BUT 1946 WAS DIFFERENT—

SHORTAGES

the tragic 8-to-1 ratio . . . CHIL-HOWEAN film . . . lack of red points . . . tantalizing tires . . . fudge
. . . sugar . . . just plain shortage . . .
they were trying but not fatal . . .

DATING

LOCAL LONG-DISTANCE

daydreams . . . Circle Drive . . . "the" picture
. . . that special bench
. . . mail under the door
. . . substitutes . . . surprise visits . . . Tuesdays . . .
reluctant goodnights . . .
flowers . . . Valentine can-
dly . . . phone calls . . .
local or long-distance, it kept us going . . .

MOVIES

The Y. M. C. A. began its activities this year by welcoming all old and new members to its annual Watermelon Pow-Wow during the first week of school. Besides holding its regular worship services each Sunday, the organization helped to sponsor the World Student Service Fund Drive and participated in World-Relatedness Day and the joint Y. W.-Y. M. Retreat.

Part-responsibility for such campus functions as the Artist Series, the Chatterbox, and the Recreation Center, housed since its organization last year in Bartlett Hall, also falls to the Y. M. Off campus the influence of the "Y" is felt at the Orphanage and in Cub and Boy Scout organizations.

The Y. W. C. A. carried on its regular summer program of providing "Big Sisters" and Nu Gamma leaders for all prospective new girls and concluded this program early in the year with the Big Sister-Little Sister Party and the Nu Gamma breakfast in the woods.

The new active-membership plan for participation in "Y" resulted in 227 active members by whom several projects were sponsored. These projects included work in two missions, the Artist Series, a most successful Barnwarming, a girls' tennis tournament and a fall hike, a tea for the leaders of the February Meetings, dormitory and campus prayer meetings, "Pete the Pig" for the lepers' fund, and the furnishing of newspapers to all women's dormitories.

NU GAMMA SIGMA

The purpose of Nu Gamma Sigma, a phase of "YW," is to help all new girls become acquainted with and adjusted to life on the "hill."

Group leaders are selected who can best pass on to freshmen and transfers the spirit of Maryville based on the Nu Gamma code:

Newness in Thought.

Usefulness in Service.

Growth, both Spiritual and Social.

Appreciation of Beauty and Truth.

Mental Alertness.

Mastery of Problems.

Attitudes of Worth.

Top to Bottom: Jean Messer, Nu Gamma Chairman, asks Lonnie Richardt and Elsie Jean Cotton to serve as leaders for 1945. Lois Thomas, Joan Liddell, and Kitty Johnson begin their careers as Nu Gamma leaders by writing to the members of their groups. Nu Gamma leaders Marian Lewis, Betty Saint, and Janet Miller greet new girls as they arrive at Maryville. Audria Stinger, Mildred Orr, and Edith Merle Delaney plan Sunday afternoon treats for their groups.

Bainonian carried the theme of travel through its clever and interesting Rush Week. The first event, a Coffee Spot, took place in an imaginary airport restaurant. The middle of the week featured the annual watermelon feast in the College Woods. For the Formal Opening on Saturday night, Bainonian and their guests boarded ship for an evening at sea and a program by the ship's crew.

Bainonian and her brother society, Athenian, met together in several meetings and concluded their year of joint activity with their annual play.

Theta began its year's program by "rushing" all the new girls through a week filled with fun and entertainment. They "walked the plank" right into a Pirate Tea, and delighted war whoops were in order at the Indian Splash Party. The Rush Week was fittingly climaxed by the formal opening in the guise of a garden party.

Theta girls entertained members of Theta and Alpha Sigma at a tea preceding the final Artist Series program of the year. In the spring, Theta joined her brother society, Alpha Sigma, in presenting their annual play, "Angel Street."

"Not to be ministered unto, but to minister" (Matt. 20:28) has, since the turn of the century, been the motto of the Ministerial Association, a group composed of men who are preparing themselves for full-time christian service.

Throughout the years of its existence on the campus, its members have been active in the Parish Project program in various missions and churches near to Maryville. They are responsible each year for conducting daily services on the campus during Holy Week.

Parish Project is a program under the joint sponsorship of the college and the Boards of Christian Education and National Missions of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A. It offers opportunity to students for actual experience in teaching Bible and in supervising religious education among children in nearby schools and missions. The parish workers serve also in various capacities with relation to the Orphanage and Boy and Girl Scout groups. The Project and workers are under the direction of Dr. Ralph T. Case.

"This Business of Living" was presented to us in a challenging way by Rev. Luther E. Stein, D.D., in his morning sermons during the February Meetings. In his evening series, he discussed a number of "Questions Men Have a Right to Ask."

Dr. Stein quickly won the admiration and affection of Maryville students by his friendly sincerity and his colorful, dynamic speaking.

This year Rev. Sidney E. Stringham, D.D., pastor of the New McKendree Methodist Church, Jackson, Missouri, was welcomed to our campus for the twenty-fourth time as song leader of the February Meetings. He has, through the years, become an integral part of the Meetings and has endeared himself to all those who have worked with him.

THE COLLEGE MAID SHOP

Since the beginning of the war, the College Maid Shop, supervised by Mrs. Kathryn McMurray, has made only uniforms for nurses in the various government services. They sent uniforms to six hospital ships, one of which was the Relief, carrying the Navy's only sea-going women at the beginning of the war. A check showed that these nurses, although they came from many parts of the country, all wore College Maid uniforms.

Under the sponsorship of the Y. M. C. A., Intramural Manager Max House, assisted by Wilbern Seymour, supervised a well-rounded program of activities for the year.

Six-man touch football opened the year's program. Captain Merrill Grubbs, who led his "Slamming Six" to the championship title, personally crossed the double stripe eleven times for sixty-six points. He flipped the pigskin to Bob Hill for another six touchdowns and added four extra points by the aerial method.

On Thanksgiving Day two teams, which had been chosen by the intramural managers contested to a scoreless tie. The teams were the Pistol Creek Polecats and the Memorial Marauders, captained by Grubbs and Max House respectively. Matteo Cardella of the Marauders was the outstanding ground-gainer, rolling up a total of 45 yards.

At the close of the season a poll was taken to select an All-Star Team. The first string consisted of Will Lenoir and Bob Hill at the end positions, Bill Dinges at center, and Mat Cardella, Hubby Doyle and Merrill Grubbs in the back-field slots. Robinson, Cover, Chandler, Stewart, House and Seymour were chosen for the second string. Hubby Doyle, tail-back of the "Big Six," was dubbed the Outstanding Player.

The year's program was completed by ping-pong and tennis tournaments, basketball, volley ball, and diamond ball.

INTERCOLLEGIATE BASKETBALL

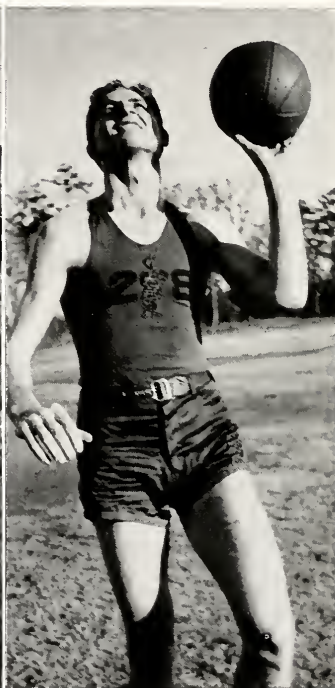

COACH HONAKER
HOUSE, Center

MIRACLE, Forward
HOLLINGSWORTH, Guard

RENFRO, Captain, Forward
SPEARS, Guard

The victory column of Coach Lombe Honaker's Highlanders did not run as high this season as in previous years due to the late organization of the team and the comparative lack of seasoned players. The team, boasting only one man of intercollegiate experience, was not organized until the latter part of January.

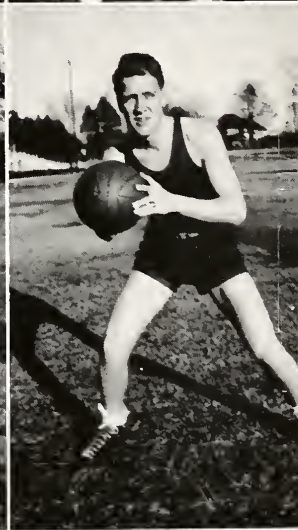

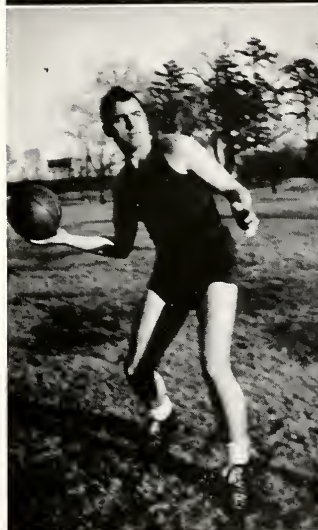

In spite of these disadvantages, the Orange and Garnet basketballers opened the season by downing their pre-war rivals, the Hiwassee Tigers, 39-29. The game uncovered freshman star, "Mike" Miracle, who led his teammates to victory with a fourteen point total.

The next four games spelled defeat for the hard-fighting Highlanders. Amos and Andy, semi-professional Maryville team, came from behind in the final quarter to trip the Honakermen, 39-30. Journeying to Carson-Newman for their third game, the M C quintette bowed before the fast-breaking offense of the Eagles to suffer a 44-31 loss. Still on the road, the Highlanders again clashed with Hiwassee in a thrill-studded game. The closing seconds found the game tied, when a crisp shot by Beverly of Hiwassee handed Maryville a 41-39 defeat. Despite a late threat by the Highlanders in their fifth game, their Tusculum hosts topped them 42-35.

Breaking into the win column for the second time, the "Scotties" snatched an early lead in their return engagement with the Tusculum Pioneers and held it to clinch the game, 37-34.

Highlander substitutes Largen and Kemp starred when the Maryvillians met the Chilhowee Lions, independent team of this vicinity although the unbeaten Lions upheld their record and came out on top, 56-36.

Trailing 29-30 at the beginning of the final four-minute period the Highlanders pulled into the lead to overcome Tennessee Wesleyan 40-32. Next the "Scotties" traveled to L. M. U. only to lose their lead in the final quarter and bow to the Railsplitters, 39-46.

The Maryville quint returned Tennessee Wesleyan's visit and inflicted a crushing defeat, 43-29. Captain Spence Renfro, who had played for Wesleyan in former years, led the Scots to their victory by piling up seventeen points.

Next season will find Maryville with a full schedule, giving the Highlanders an opportunity to display their full colors. The starting five will lose Captain Spence Renfro and Ollie Spears by graduation. Returning stars will be Miracle, Lenoir and Newman, freshmen; House, Kemp, Largent, and Hollingsworth, sophomores.

Girls' athletics at Maryville takes the form of a point system in which a specified number of points is earned for participation in any given sport. The aim of most point system girls is membership in the "M" Club, for which a 400-point record is required.

MISS OLINDE AHRENS

Chilhowean Girl-of-the-Year

elected from the Senior Class by the editorial staff of the 1946 CHILHOWEAN as the most outstanding girl in the class as judged on the four qualifications of leadership, scholarship, character, and service.

If you should chance to meet this slender girl with short, dark hair and warm blue eyes, she would greet you with a cherry word perhaps or with a smile as cordial as a handclasp. In answer to your questions, her replies show interest and a real desire to help. The conversation turns to various subjects, each of which she discusses with the assured, but modest, manner of a specialist. Something in that manner makes you know she is a leader. Something shows that she would listen quietly to a wrangling group; then speak wisely and impartially—and the group would listen.

If you should ask what she has done to merit her position, some would say, "She is dependable"; others, ". . . so practical"; they would cite her Student Council record or her fight for Student Government, her clever composition in the "Echo" or for Workshop; they would tell you that she mixes books and common sense in just the right proportion. But words cannot do her justice, nor even thoughts—she is just "our Linde."

Olinde is a Philosophy major from Osborne, Kansas. She entered Maryville as a freshman in 1943, taking an accelerated course and attending summer school, thus enabling her to graduate this spring.

Always active in extracurricula activities, Olinde is this year serving as president of the Women's Student Government Association, which she played so active a part in founding. She is doing Honors Work and is one of eight seniors selected to represent Maryville in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

"Soapy" is not just a student at Maryville—she's an institution. Her wit, unsurpassed on the campus—or anywhere else, that we know of—makes her the life of every party and the very soul of fun. The extent of her popularity, both in quality and quantity, was gauged this year when she was selected not only to represent her class at Barnwarming, but to reign over the entire school for that eventful night.

Senior Sponsor—Barnwarming Queen

Alma, as a newcomer to Maryville this year, is doubly honored in being elected the sponsor of the Junior Class. Unusual as such a situation is, a mere acquaintance with her charming way and quick, glowing smile easily explains it. Wider knowledge reveals her as an accomplished musician who is as generous with her talent as she is with her smile.

ALMA LANCASTER

Junior Sponsor

Jo adds to the always attractive combination of black hair and blue eyes a lovely voice and a personality sparkling with poise. Her ready cooperation and her original ideas have won for her many positions of responsibility on campus committees, and her musical talent places her on the performance list at every turn.

Sophomore Sponsor

Rosemary hails from the "Land of Sunshine" to rate first place in the Freshmen Class. The sincere and practical way in which she meets all sorts of people and situations enhances her natural friendliness, and her bedimpled smile is the envy of the campus.

Alma Mater

Where Chilhowee's lofty mountains
Pierce the Southern blue,
Proudly stands our Alma Mater,
Noble, grand and true.

As thy hilltop crowned with cedars,
Ever green appears,
So thy mem'ry fresh shall linger
Through life's smiles and tears.

Lift the chorus, wake the echoes,
Make the welkin ring!
Hail the queen of all the highlands,
Loud her praises sing.

CHORUS

Orange—Garnet, float forever,
Ensign of our hill
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Hail to Maryville.
